

Recommended Networking Groups

Founded in 1988 by Curt Kowalski, this networking group builds meaningful business relationships through monthly networking events called “Martys”, a unique blend of a meeting and a party. Shared experiences, new offerings, and concerns are all on the table each meeting for the benefit of all in attendance. Members share a common business philosophy: To offer quality, dependability, and personal service to our clients and customers. Learn if there is an opening in your business category, or to discuss how to qualify and which Team may be the best choice for your company to join, call Curt Kowalski at 301-260-0060 or on the web at www.teamnetwork.com .

Located here in the Washington area, NRG believes in a level playing field is extremely attractive as the bottom line for all businesses is Return on Investment (ROI). By bringing together different industries, the NRG teams market as one unit. NRG is like having a team of unpaid consultants. For questions about groups in Maryland please contact NRG President, Mike Weiner at 443.756.9656 or you can email them at MikeWeiner@helloWorld.com. For more information about groups in Virginia, Washington D.C., and Pennsylvania please contact Roxann Gardner, NRG Vice President at 443.280.2110 or, RoxGardner@helloWorld.com.

Belonging to BNI is like having dozens of sales people working for youbecause all of them carry several copies of your business cards around with them. When they meet someone who could use your products or services, they hand out your card. It's simple because it's based on a proven concept by BNI Founder, Dr Ivan Misner, called "givers gain." If I give you business you'll give me business and we'll both benefit as a result. 545 College Commerce Way—Upland, CA 91786 Or simply email bni@bni.com or call 1-800-825-8286.

TNC is the networking resource center and membership organization recognized in the media as the thought leader for person-to-person networking in the 21st century. Dan Williams, founder of the Networking Community, promotes the concept that, “Networking is a process, not an event.” Their mission is to make networking easier and more productive for the individual by bringing together the necessary networking resources to ensure success. In the Washington area, The Networking Community can be reached at (571) 246-7366 TNC@TheNetworkingCommunity.com